DARING ROBBERY IN NEW YORK

Masked Men Make $20,000 Haul in Jewelry and Diamonds.

(Special to The Herald)
New York, Jan. 30.—With drawn revolvers, three masked men held up the clerks in the pawn shop owned by Adolph Stein at 1308 Third Avenue
early today.
Taking suit cases, they placed the jewelry, most of which being diamonds, in them. When they departed they had three cases full, the value being estimated at between $15,000 and $20,000 in jewelry, and $170 in cash. The robbers made their escape in an automobile.
The police learned of the robbery about a half hour after the bandits left the pawn shop. One of the clerks struggled at the door, still partially bound, and summoned aid by blowing a police whistle.

When the men entered the store
they demanded that the three clerks hold up their hands. The clerks complied and were then gagged and bound, while the three men kept them covered with revolvers. One of the clerks had just opened the door of the safe when the men entered. Thinking that they had come to borrow money, he offered a pledge, he stepped up to them. As he did he looked into the muzzle of a revolver, while the other two men ran to the rear to look out for the other clerks. They were then bound and gagged, and carried to a rear room and left on the floor, while the safe was looted of its valuable pledges.

NO AIR WHISTLE FOR THE FIRE ALARM

Report Favors New Whistle at West End and Other Improvements.

There will be no air whistle for the city fire alarm if the city council will favor the report of the chief engineer and the committee on fire department.
The chief, and committee, composed of Councilmen Duncan, Helt and Smart have decided to recommend the following:
"In addition to the whistle on the power house of the electric light plant, another automatic whistle be installed either at the Eldridge Brewing Company or the Morley Bulton Manufacturing Company. The present whistle on Daniel street to be raised 20 feet to bring it above the roofs of surrounding buildings, and the operating machinery removed to an enclosure on the roof of the power house. The report calls for the removal of all iron wire, to be replaced by copper wire through the city. The bell on the North church will remain, but that on the South Ward Room, which has worked badly since established, may be disconnected and removed. This rests with the action of the council, who will hear the full report at the next meeting.
Almost cold enough to freeze the water in the water wagon.

NEW RUSSIAN ARMY IN EAST PRUSSIA

Meeting With But Slight Resistance
By the Germans in the March On Tilsit

Germans Destroy Three British Aeroplanes
After Their Raid.

(Special to The Herald)
The northern column of the new Russian army of invasion in East Prussia is meeting with only slight resistance by the Germans in their march on Tilsit. According to official announcements there were only 300 of the 6000 inhabitants of Pillkallen remaining when the Russians entered that city.
Grand Duke Nicholas is meeting the heavy Austro-German assaults on the Carpathian line with a counter blow which seems to threaten the Teutonic left wing. Southwest of Dukla Pass the Russians have scored a success, defeating their enemy and inflicting severe losses in men and materials of war. The Russians are pursuing the beaten troops with energy, according to the Petrograd announcement.
While the Russian commander reports Austrian attacks on Vereckze Pass have been repelled, Vienna declares the Czar's troops were repulsed with heavy loss west of Uzsok Pass, and also near Vezerasallas and Volovcs, south of Vereckze Pass.
Here the Austro-Germans took 400 prisoners.
Through the latter pass runs a railroad from Munkacz in Hungary to Stryj and Lemberg, in Galicia, east of Przemyel.
One German objective is said to be the relief of that fortress.

The Russian blow from Dukla Pass, according to military observers, indicates an attempt by the Russians to turn the flank of the Teuton Allies; and if it should prove successful, the observers say, it would have serious consequences for the large Austro-German army in and about the Carpathian Passes.
The Russian military experts anticipate that the Austrians will deliver their main attack with their extreme right in Western Bukovina, in the hope of achieving a signal victory and thus give Roumania cause to pause.
The only thing holding Roumania in check at present, it is stated, is the uncertainty as to the action Bulgaria would be likely to take. Bulgaria, it is asserted, is still demanding that part of Macedonia now under Serbian rule as the price of her neutrality, and this Serbia is said to be not willing to part with.

(Special to The Herald)
Berlin, (by wireless), Jan. 30.—Three British aeroplanes which took part in the bombardment of Ostend and Ze-brugge were detained by the Germans, according to reports received here today. The German News Bureau stated that only four of the seven aeroplanes which took part in the raid returned to their base. The remaining three were surrounded by German infantrymen and were later driven out to sea. One is said to have been hit by the fire of light field guns and dropped into the sea, the others disappearing in an attempted flight towards the English coast.

RUSSIANS SUCCESSFUL IN PERSIA
(Special to The Herald)
Petrograd, Jan. 30.—Successes for the Russians in both Transcaucasia and Persia are reported in the following report received here from Tiflis.
"In the region of Teheran the enemy's column was repulsed, and the Turks fell back from Baschkowl. On Thursday Turkish artillery shelled several points of our front, but without success. We have occupied Sofina after a hard fought struggle, capturing many standards, guns, and a large quantity of supplies."
The master feat of Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief, of putting a fresh army of 250, 000 men into the field without weakening the Russian forces that are facing the Austro-German army in Poland, is regarded here as one of the most important developments of the present campaign.

TWO FREIGHT WRECKS ON BOSTON & MAINE

One Backs Into the Other at Rockingham--Broken Wheel Ties Up Traffic at West Kennebunk.

With the thermometer below zero, the Boston and Maine wrecking crew from this city worked until after five o'clock this morning clearing up two wrecks on the Eastern and Western routes of the Portland division, both of which happened just before six o'clock on Friday evening. The first took place at Rockingham where the Southern Division backed into a North Berwick freight standing on the main line of the Portland division. The buggy of the Manchester freight was tipped over on the station platform.
And one car of the North Berwick freight pushed off the rails.
The second accident occurred at West Kennebunk on a west-bound freight, where the wheel of a box-car loaded with potatoes split in two just as the train stopped to take water for the locomotive. Had this happened with the train under speed a very serious and costly wreck would have resulted. The Boston wreckers were ordered to go to Rockingham, and the Portland wreckers to West Kennebunk.
Later the orders were changed and the Portsmouth wreckers directed to clear up both wrecks.
Neither of the accidents caused much delay in the traffic. Conductor Frank H. Moore was in charge of the train, and Edward A. Weeks looked after the wreckers.

TWENTY INJURED IN TRAIN WRECK

Seven Passenger Cars Leave Rails at Oakland, Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 30.—Twenty persons were injured, three probably fatally when seven cars of a passenger train on the Chicago, Milwan-kee and St. Paul railroad, left the rails at Oakland, Wisconsin, 12 miles north of here.

BURGLARS BREAK INTO DEPOT

Burglars entered the Greenland station on the Eastern route of the Boston and Maine railroad on Friday night where they secured $25 in money from the safe, which they succeeded in forcing open with tools that they took from the car house of the station before.

BOSTON LETTER

Boston, Jan. 30.—The announcement that the Interstate Commerce Commission would hold hearings in the East on car spotting charges is being received with a great deal of interest by local merchants and manufacturers. In fact, the effect of the hearing is apt to prove so important that the Chamber of Commerce has issued a request to its members asking them to communicate with the transportation committee of any of them are likely to be affected by such charges. Up to the present the railroads of New England have made no charges for spotting cars. The car spotting consists of free service by the railroads in placing certain designated cars at designated places on the private tracks or sidings for those to whom such cars are consigned. The hearings will be held in the East for the purpose of determining whether the railroads shall be allowed to make a charge for such service. It is figured that if a charge is allowed by the Interstate Commerce Commission such charge will be $2 per car. The charge for spotting cars would be made in addition to the ferry car service, which is already being made. This service at present, is $2 per car if the contents of the car are less than 5000 pounds.

Boston, Jan. 30.—The Public Service Commission has issued an order further suspending the passenger rate increases asked for by the railroads operating in Massachusetts. The commission states that it has as yet not been able to complete its investigation as to the fairness of the increases, and therefore orders the roads to suspend them until March 1 or until otherwise ordered.

Boston, Jan. 30.—The oldest graduate of Harvard College is celebrating the 97th anniversary of his birth this week at Swansea. He is Dr. James J. Wellington, who graduated from college in 1818.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson received many handsome gifts of linen and silver. They were assisted in receiving by their daughter, Miss Eleanor, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lewis Johnson. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served, each guest being presented with a slice of wedding cake. Dancing was enjoyed by all present, the grand march being led by Mrs. Melissa Lewis and George Lambert. The guests departed at a late hour, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Johnson many more years of happy wedded life.

MORE TROUBLE FOR RAILROAD

Engineers and Firemen Protest on Mileage Cut and Discharges.

Difficulties between the officials of the Boston and Maine railroad and the engineers and firemen which threatened to precipitate a strike last summer have again reached a crisis. General committee of two of the "Big Five" railroad brotherhoods have taken issue with the way the company has dealt with its working agreement and immediate action is under consideration.

The union charge that the management has failed to keep a number of the provisions which were settled and signed eight months ago. The men are not seeking an increase in pay, but a change of present conditions. When the local committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was called in and was in session yesterday at the American house, it will meet again today at Engineers Hall, 164 Canal street, Boston. The general committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen will convene in this city on Tuesday. It is understood that the two committees will take joint action before waiting upon the management.

The men charge that the company in cutting the mileage on some of the long runs has increased the working day, so that in some instances men are called upon to work from 12 to 16 hours. The agreement, the representatives say was for a ten-hour day.

The men allege that more than 350 engineers who have been long in the employ of the railroad have been set back to hiring and as a result some 600 firemen have been idle for nearly six months. There are several other minor grievances alleged.

tended to destroy. Representative Britten announced that he intended to introduce a bill appropriating $100,000 for experimentation by the navy department with the Isham shell. He will provide in his bill that the navy department and not Mr. Isham will have control of the shells.

If after such experiments it is found that the shell can be made virtually perfect he will propose that the United States government have the exclusive right to the invention, after which Isham will be paid.

WHIST AND DANCE.

Merry Party at K. of C. Home Thursday Evening.

The K. of C. held a very enjoyable whist and dancing party at their home on Islington street on Thursday evening. There was a good attendance and several tables were occupied in a spirited game which resulted, with the following as prize winners: Ladies' first, Mrs. H. F. Moulton; second, Mrs. Emma Hayes; gentleman's first, Mrs. Edward Dwyer; second, Mr. Wilkinson. Refreshments of ice and cake were served and dancing followed until a late hour, Alex Blibrick furnishing the music for the dance.

Everyone present thoroughly enjoyed themselves and are eagerly anticipating "their next."

GIRLS' CLUB NOTES

All calendar money must be handed in to the collector at once. Give your money to Miss Trefethen, Miss Slossberg or to Miss Goodwin. If you have not completed your part hand in what you have collected.

Come to the fish chowder supper at the club on Saturday evening. All people who have been asked to solicit for the Girls' Club supper on Saturday evening, do not fail to send in your contribution on Saturday afternoon.

The monthly suppers furnish a splendid opportunity to the business men and girls down-town. The supper will be varied this month, too, menu consisting of fish chowder, crackers, pickles, pies, cake and coffee. All for the small sum of 20c.

The Girls' Club is to hold one of its enjoyable dances on Tuesday evening, February 2d, in Freeman's Annex. Miss May Coughlin is chairman of the committee and will be assisted by an able committee consisting of the Misses Catherine Coughlin, Alice Kiley, Teresa Brooks and Helen O'Brien. Three members of the advisory board, Miss Martha S. Kimball, Miss Derttha Bennett and Miss Edith W. Brewster, will be the patronesses. This promises to be a very pretty dancing party and all club members may be admitted without an invitation. Those desiring invitations, who have failed to receive them, can secure the same by asking some member of the committee.

The committee on the fish chowder supper to be served Saturday night consists of Mrs. Florence Harris, chairman, Misses Jesse Woods and Helen Laighton.

The rehearsal for the play, "The Bewildering Miss Pollock," are going well and everything promises to be successful. The cast has been very carefully chosen and under Miss Mary E. Wood's coaching, a big success is already assured.

Many come to the club each Sunday afternoon to enjoy the little talks on something of interest. Good music is also enjoyed.

The committee on the play consists of Misses Dorothy Doolittle, Ruth Schurman, Marion Call, Mabel Pollmer and Frances Salden.

PUT MORE RICE IN GERMAN BREAD.

Paris, Jan. 29.—Many extracts from German newspapers are printed to show that a food crisis is feared in Germany. The bakers have decided to sell new bread which is to be marked "K." The former bread "K" meaning "Kriegsbrot," or war bread, contained 16 per cent of potato, barley, rice and flour. The new bread contains 20 per cent of these commodities.

The municipality of Potsdam has bought 100,000 lb. of grammes of preserved meat for sale later to the population at the purchase price. Many municipalities are laying in stocks of meats

A group of economists has founded a weekly review, which is being distributed gratuitously and which is entitled "Kriegsbrot," or war food. The military authorities of Munster have invited the people to economize in the use of soap because the fat and other ingredients can no longer be imported.

CHICKEN STORIES

South Norwalk, Ct., Jan. 29.—Murdering a chicken in self-defense was the plea advanced in court here by Mrs. Theresa Volka when charged with the theft of poultry by her neighbor Mrs. Lizzie Popp. Judge Keogh said the self-defense plea might hold water as far as killing the chicken went, but it did not explain the removal of the feathers and the placing of the bird in a pot, where it was found by Mrs. Popp. Mrs. Volka says the bird attacked her and nearly pecked out her eyes. Judge Keogh fined her $10 and costs.

New York, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Helen Mc Keever of College Point, Queens, was feeding chickens at her home when her pet pullet perched on her right shoulder.

As she took a handful of corn from a basket, the chick pecked her eye and punctured an artery. Dr. Henry M. Biffa said she probably will lose the sight of her eye.

DESERT MADE TO BLOOM

Three Million Arid Acres Reclaimed Since 1902—"More Important Than Panama Canal"

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 29.—Three million acres of desert land have been made to bloom and produce good crops since the Government instituted its reclamation department in 1902. C. J. Blanchard, statistician of the reclamation and forest conservation service, told the Southwestern Lumber Dealers Association, in convention here yesterday.

"This project is more important than the Panama Canal in results," Mr. Blanchard said. "Plans are already under way, and part of the work accomplished, to add 30,000,000 acres to the three million already made possible of cultivation." Mr. Blanchard recommended cooperation among farmers as the best way to assist the Government's work.

PROMOTION FOR MARINE WHO DISCOVERED FIRE.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Because he discovered what promised to have been a serious fire, private Alexander P. Monkevitz of the Marine Corps has been promoted to the rank of corporal by the commandant of the corps and as a further recognition of his presence of mind has been sent a letter of commendation by Sec. Daniels.

Monkevitz is attached to the Boston navy yard and was on patrol duty recently when he discovered the blaze. He gave the alarm immediately and the fire was soon got under control by the marine garrison with the aid of the city Fire Department.

NEW RULING.

Parcel Post Insurance on Fourth Class Mail Matter.

Hereafter all people sending parcels by means of the mails under a fourth class parcel rating will be asked by postoffice employees whether or not they wish their parcels insured. This new rule is issued from the office of the third assistant postmaster general at Washington and became operative immediately. Unless you state previously that you do not wish your parcels sent as insured mail, do not be surprised when the clerk asks you whether it is to go insured.

As the result of a parcel post convention between this country and the British colony of Gibraltar, parcel post packages for Gibraltar will be admitted to the mails dispatched from this country on and after February 1. The weight limit will be eleven pounds and packages must not measure more than three feet six inches in length. The rate will be 12 cents a pound. Packages cannot be registered.

Clean your liver and constipated bowels to-night and feel fine.

Are you keeping your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets—or merely forcing a bad pathway every few days with cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the acid, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

No add how sick, headachy, bilious and constipated you feel, a Cascaret at night will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget that Cascarets' little inside need a gentle laxative.

Portsmouth, N. H., Saturday, January 30, 1915.

A Danger Recognized.

We have on more than one occasion called attention to the danger involved in the growing belief that in this country there is one law for the rich and another for the poor, and evidence is frequently coming to the front which shows that this belief is not only growing, but that it is not confined to people who might be said to be incapable of judging correctly. Attorneys, bar associations and even so eminent an authority as Ex-President Taft are calling attention to shortcomings in our court procedure and the necessity of taking steps to maintain the standards of the legal profession with a frequency which clearly indicates that there is room for improvement, and that there must be improvement in certain directions if the faith of the people in the courts is to be retained.

The reading public is familiar with the arguments and pleas of Mr. Taft for a simplification of legal proceedings which would place all men on an equal footing before the law, where they now stand theoretically, but not in reality, as everybody knows. And Mr. Taft does not stand alone in viewing the case as he does. There are thousands of citizens in all walks of life who have reached the same conclusion, and the ranks of the objectors to the condition complained of are being recruited from time to time by members of the legal profession who are not afraid to speak out against existing abuses.

A leading member of the Massachusetts bar in a recent public address touched very plainly on this subject. He intimated that "the popular impression that there is one kind of justice for the rich and another for the poor is not far wrong." He showed how the rich, with the help of skillful lawyers and the technicalities of the law, can wear out poor litigants, though the latter may have right on their side, and suggested that there should be changes which would remove this condition.

But one law for the rich and another for the poor is not confined to civil proceedings. The abuse is equally flagrant in the criminal courts, as intelligent observers cannot fail to be aware, and it is one that is fraught with the gravest danger. Faith in the courts is one of the bedrocks of civilization and when that is removed the structure trembles. It is to be hoped that the recognition of these vital facts, which appears to be growing, will lead to steps by which one of the looming evils of the time will be removed.

It takes foreign countries to demonstrate the beauties of government ownership. The German government is to take possession of all the grain in the empire February 1. Of course it will be paid for, but the government fixes the price. The probability is that if some Americans who are shouting for government ownership were to spend a few years where it prevails as it does in most of the old countries they would change their views, especially if they owned anything themselves.

Colonel Goethals expresses the fear that it will be impossible to have a parade of warships through the Panama canal in March, as planned, because of the landslide that recently took place. Such an interference with the program for the opening of the Panama-Pacific exposition will be regretted by all concerned, but as a slider the canal is proving too much of a success, and it remains to take the consequences, make the best of them and fool the bills.

Senator Tillman thinks the foreign war affords an opportunity to determine just what kind of battleships will be required in the future, and that it would be well for this country to find out before building. But for keeping the peace, which is what battleships are supposed to be built for nowadays, why is not one kind just as good as another?

It is claimed that the 16-inch gun recently turned out of the United States arsenal at Watervliet, N. Y., is superior to anything that Germany has produced, and yet the howl about this country's unpreparedness for war continues.

When Billy Sunday hits New York we should have as good an illustration as is possible of what happens when an indefatigable body comes in contact with an immovable one.

An astrologer says the White House baby is a "born reformer." Heaven forbid!

RELIEF SHIP TO PALESTINE

Assured of Safe Conduct by Warring Powers.

Washington, Jan. 29.—A ship loaded with food for the famine-stricken people of Palestine and Syria will be sent soon by the Zionist committee. It was announced today that assurance of safe conduct for the vessel had been given by the British, French and Turkish governments.

Dr. J. S. Magnes of New York made the announcement, called at the state with Rabbi Stephen S. Wise and Rabbi Joseph B. Kampel and informed officials there that the food ship would be sent within the next few days and that plans for providing the cargo already had been worked out. Nathan Straus of New York has subscribed $50,000 to the fund.

The food will be distributed through American consular agents, not only to Hebrews but to Mohammedans and Christians as well. Mr. Brandels said that assistance is being given the movement by Christian organizations.

Young Rockefeller Plays Fair With Former Labor Enemies.

This is John D. Rockefeller, Jr., son of the multimillionaire, who is heir to the immense Standard Oil interests. The picture was posed by him during the investigation into the Rockefeller foundation by the federal commission on industrial relations in New York city. Young Rockefeller proved a willing witness and made a good impression by his straightforward manner. It was during his attendance at the sessions of the commission that he met Mother Jones, the famous labor agitator, who figured in the Colorado strike troubles in which Rockefeller was interested. Young Rockefeller invited Mother Jones for a conference at 26 Broadway, the Standard Oil headquarters, and she accepted. The result was that they exchanged views on labor conditions and established friendly relations. He also met other strike leaders as men to men, and they found they held many views in common. The young multimillionaire's frank and open method of meeting those who had considered him as their natural enemy was an entire reversal of former Standard Oil or Rockefeller policies.

REVENUE CUTTER SERVICE IS AT AN END

Merged With Life Saving Service Under Control of the Navy; Known as Coast Guard.

New York, Jan. 29.—The United States revenue cutter service organized when Alexander Hamilton was secretary of the treasury passed out of existence today and was replaced by the United States coast guard.

All along the Atlantic littoral the former revenue cutter officers received information by wireless that they were now coast guard officers, although their rank remained unchanged, and that their vessels henceforth would be termed coast guard cutters. These instructions carry into effect the provisions of the law recently passed by Congress and signed yesterday by President Wilson, whereby the revenue cutter service and the life saving service are merged into one organization. By this law, the new service becomes a part of the regular military establishment of the United States and in time of war it passes under direct control of the navy department.

All life saving stations will hereafter be controlled by the coast guard and all life saving crews will be made up of regularly enlisted men detailed from the new organization. Heretofore the life saving service has been carried on the civil lists.

The coast guard comes into being with a total personnel of 4,300 combining highly educated officers and trained seamen from the revenue cutter service and the best surfmen from the country from the life savers. The training and development of the new body will devolve upon the former revenue cutter officers and its active management will be directed by a captain commandant, corresponding to the same office which controlled the revenue cutter service.

It Looks Good

A well known citizen who lately visited the navy department at Washington has information from a reliable source that Portsmouth navy yard may build some of the submarines recommended by the naval committee which Secretary Daniels favors being constructed at the government yards. A little work is necessary on the part of the New Hampshire representatives in Washington. The Board of Trade and the Navy Yard Improvement Association should get busy on this matter.

CURRENT OPINION

Man Made Laws Frequently Fail to Protect Women and Children.

It really seems to me suffrage is one of the fundamentals of democracy. Certainly, if we are going to reach that higher plane of settling national and international differences by intellectual conferences, rather than in the manner it is now being done in Europe, we must have the opinion of the whole people as to what course to pursue.

Man made laws do not always cover the problems.

New Zealand for many years has been able to show the lowest infant death rate in the world.

Women have had the suffrage in New Zealand for a generation.

We cannot give absolute proof in the matter, but it is very significant that where the women have the most to say in the national housekeeping the best protected children are found.—By Miss Julia Lathrop, Head of Children's Bureau, United States Department of Labor.

Stockade for Prisoners

A stockade with walls eight feet high will be built near the naval prison, to be used by the prisoners for out door exercise and games. The men to use it will have the pleasure of building it and the construction will be of rock.

Hannibal Gone

The Hannibal sailed at 5.30 this morning for Boston navy yard. Some time was passed in the lower harbor in the adjustment of compasses.

POSTOFFICE HERE MAY BE AFFECTED

Orders have been given in the post-office department at Washington for big cuts in expenses all along the line. The postal revenues are in such a serious condition, according to Postmaster-General Burleson, that orders have been issued by him to his subordinates to retrench. To Postmaster Morgan of New York, directions have been issued to make a report on conditions in that office with a view to reductions.

There are various reasons given by the department head relative to the falling off of the revenues. The war in Europe is of course blamed. The parcel post comes in for its share, the department claiming that mail order houses now ship their catalogues in that way at a lower rate. There are other reasons advanced, but it seems to be the opinion of the department that men must be taken off the regular force, and used at the call of the postmaster when needed.

Postmaster Corner of this city, in a conversation with a Herald man, said this morning that he had received no notice as yet, but expected to within a few days. When asked what he intended to do he said, "The months of December and January of this year, have been the best in the history of the local postoffice. I shall inform Postmaster General Burleson to that effect and if the orders are to place any number of men on the 'call roll' I will make a strong protest."

AGAIN POSTPONE COMERY TRIAL

The trial of Oscar J. Comery for murder of his wife by poison at their home in McGregerville on November 29, which was to have begun Monday in superior court, has again been deferred. The opening date has not been fixed.

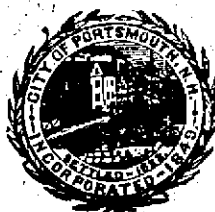

The trial was first postponed as a result of Comery's attempt to kill himself in the corridor of the Hillsborough county jail on Valley street a few minutes before he was to be taken to the court house last Monday morning. At that time the trial was put over until February 1.

County authorities Friday night stated that because the prisoner had not recuperated sufficiently there will be no trial next week.

This step was taken when County Physician Folhom who is attending Comery reported to the court that the condition of his patient was such that it would be impossible for him to appear.

Comery cut his throat with a small pocket knife when the guards' back was turned. He narrowly missed the jugular vein. He lost a considerable quantity of blood. His recovery is said to be assured.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS.

By direction of the Governor and Council you are hereby notified to take such measures as are prescribed by law for the suppression of the Gipsy and the Brownish Moths of your premises. (N. H. Laws of 1907, chapter 147). The law declares these insects to be a public nuisance and orders their suppression by property owners up to a cost of one-half of one per cent. of the tax valuation of the property.

Destruction of these pests is especially desired when on trees or other objects overhanging or adjacent to highways, or to orchards, or to occupied premises.

HOBSON'S PLEA FOR BIG NAVY BASED ON "YELLOW PERIL"

Representative Tells Congress Peace With Japan Was Secured By Promise of Retirement
From Philippines.

Washington, Jan. 29.—In a final appeal to the House tonight for a larger navy, Representative Hobson of Alabama declared it was his firm conviction that the United States had secured peace with Japan only by giving assurance of speedy retirement from the Philippines. Moreover, in part of his speech, which went into the record without actually being delivered on the floor, the Alabama representative said he believed that when the American fleet went around the world during the Roosevelt administration, it was allowed to go to Japan only with the assurance that it would be out of the Pacific ocean by a fixed time.

Formal denial by Secretary Bryan that the administration's Philippine policy had been in any way affected by negotiations with Japan, or that the subject had been discussed here or in Tokyo, was quoted by Mr. Hobson with the remark that this did not change his belief as he would expect the secretary to deny it.

"I am further convinced," Mr. Hobson continued, "that our first inquiry into the intention of Japan in seizing Kiauchau and then the islands in the Pacific will not be followed up at least by this administration and that Japan as a price of peace will be given a free hand in China to its fate to become a governed nation, while the commerce of America, which in cotton goods alone fell off $25,000,000 in Manchuria after Japanese occupation, will be at the mercy of a competitor while the overthrow of the balance of power in the Pacific would lead to an inevitable war."

Representative Hobson said he had felt for some time that the fleet never would go to the Pacific under the present administration. He reviewed the situation in Europe, referring to criticisms of America's conduct by both sides in the present war and to "arbitrary treatment of America" "ships and declared that the situation closely paralleled the conditions which led to the war with France in 1890, and that with England in 1812. "Napoleon's resentment, which led to the war with France in 1890," he said "was not so intense as the growing resentment of Germany today at the great source of supply of war materials her enemy allies are finding in America. Great Britain's attitude towards our purchase of ships of Germany is nothing short of menacing."

All of these things, Mr. Hobson insisted, proved the imperative necessity of strengthening the United States navy far beyond the point contemplated in the present program. He discussed the navy at length, compared it with the sea forces of foreign powers and appealed for a reorganization of the navy, for more men and for more ships.

Earlier in the day Representative Gardner of Massachusetts spoke in support of his resolution for a commission to investigate the country's defenses.

General debate on the naval bill was closed late tonight and reading of the measure for amendment will begin tomorrow. The great fight will be on the construction program, providing for two battleships and a number of auxiliaries. Representative Hobson and others will endeavor to have this program enlarged, while there will be some in favor of reducing it.

Representative Hobson declared in the course of the debate that President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were the greatest obstacles to national defense and it seemed singular that the movement for prohibition likewise found its greatest opposition from this administration.

SIX FOR TRIAL IN THAW CASE

Five Charged With Aiding Escape Not Expected to Turn State's Evidence.

New York, Jan. 29.—The five men whose daring carried Harry K. Thaw to liberty in his spectacular automobile escape from Matteawan will be tried for conspiracy at the same time Thaw is placed on trial in the supreme court. The date set for the trial of Thaw is Feb. 23.

Application to have the five men who rode with Thaw in his trip toward the Canadian border tried with him will be made by Franklin Kennedy, deputy attorney general. Mr. Kennedy has had charge of the case against Thaw since William Travers Jerome was dropped by the attorney general as Thaw's prosecutor. This much of Mr. Kennedy's program became known today when Roger Thompson, one of the men named in the indictment for conspiracy, appeared before Justice Davis and pleaded not guilty. Thompson was the chauffeur of the automobile in which Thaw made his escape more than a year and a half ago. His plea of not guilty was looked upon as notification to Thaw's prosecutors that none of the men alleged to have been principals with Thaw in the escape intend to turn State's evidence.

The others are Richard J. Butler, one time Assemblyman; Eugene Duffy, Michael O'Keefe and Thomas Flood. It has been reported that Butler intended to plead guilty and that the others would follow his lead. Thompson's bail of $1000 was continued. Mr. Kennedy's decision to try all of the cases arising out of Thaw's escape at the one time, he said, was in line with the program of economy in such matters demanded by the new attorney general. Thaw spent a quiet day in the Tombs today.

DELEGATION AT STATE COLLEGE

N. H. College Visited by Manchester Delegation of Legislators.

Durham, N. H., Jan. 29.—New Hampshire College was visited today by 50 members of the Manchester legislative delegation who were shown about by the faculty and entertained at a luncheon at the girls' dormitory. At the afternoon chapel exercises President Fairchild told the visitors of the pressing need for additional dormitories. He said the college was the culmination of the public school system and that 25 per cent of the students were self-supporting, and 50 per cent partly self-supporting. Other speakers were Hobart Pillsbury, chairman of the delegation; Gen. Henry B. Fairbanks of the appropriations committee, M. J. Connor, and Senator Wagner.

GALLINGER AGAIN TALKS ON SHIPS

Session in Senate Lasts
Through the Night.

Washington, Jan. 29.—After progressive Republican senators had proposed amendments to the government ship law, so far today, with the suggestion that they might support the measure in amended form, the senate settled down to listen again to another opposing speech by Senator Gallinger.

The senator read into the record many pages of reports on ocean transportation, ship subsidies, history of famous dilators and the news of the day from a morning newspaper.

Later in the day Republican leaders conferred secretly when confronted with rumors from the Democratic side that an effort would be made to hold the senate in session all night. It was agreed early in the morning that a program of parliamentary obstruction should be instituted. Several senators planned to call up pending bills in the calendar, demanding roll calls on each motion. It also was agreed that the senators should ask unanimous consent to be excused and to demand a roll call upon each objection.

The Republican senators as on previous night sessions, abandoned all efforts to prevent obstructive tactics, and as the evening wore on, it was apparent that another endurance test was on.

While some of the Democrats doubted that here would be insistence upon the point tonight, it was declared that all-night sessions certainly would be resorted to in the near future.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Determined to crush Republican opposition and end the long fight over the government ship purchase bill, the Democrats held the senate in session past midnight last night with the avowed purpose of forcing a final vote before recess or adjournment.

How long the minority would be able to hold off the vote no one would predict, but even the most optimistic Democrats admitted that the continuous session might last until tomorrow night. Others thought it more likely to continue for two or three days.

THE SCIENCE OF DISTRIBUTION

With food enough and to spare and with clothing for the comfort of all, we have not learned to distribute the world's products in a very practical way or at least so that real need is met. "Money is expended for that which is not bread and labor for that which satisfieth not."

Life's pleasures, which ought to be simple, have become so expensive that they demand too large a share of the family income in many instances.

The labor world is so busy preparing articles not meat, drink, or clothing to put on, that proper housing is too often neglected.

If we are to have better living conditions we must hark back to foundations which stand. The new cry, "Order it Now," may serve as a bridge for a while, but no lasting help will come until we reorganize the whole fabric of distribution. The cry would better be a future builded on sure foundations.—A Common Brotherhood.

WANT PLAYGROUND FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

Parent-Teachers Association Explain Conditions at Farragut School.

The Parents' Teachers' Association the only organization of the kind in this city, held a meeting on Friday evening in the Farragut school. There was an attendance of nearly a hundred and it proved to be a very enthusiastic meeting. A delightful entertainment was given which consisted of the following program: Folk Dances....."Arc of Diamond" "Dutch Dance." "Swedish Dance." By members of the Junior class of Training school. Vocal Solo....."The Perfect Knight" Miss Jessie Woods. Vocal Solo....."Just Be Glad" Miss Mary Wentworth of the Junior class of Training school. Story Telling of Indian Legends....

At the conclusion of the program a business session was held, with Mr. George Plaisted, President of the Parents-Teachers' Association presiding. Reports of the committees who are investigating ways and means for a playground for the Farragut school were read and plans were discussed. The present playground attached to this school is very inadequate and it was discovered by actual measurement that the number of square feet per child was only seven, hardly more than standing room and it is keenly felt by the teachers and parents and the citizens of the city that a playground in this district is a necessity, not only for the use of the school, but also for summer use, to keep the children from the street.

REVIVAL MEETING METHODIST CHURCH

First Meeting Addressed by Rev. Mr. Scott, Very Successful.

The first of the series of special revival meetings in the Methodist church was held on Friday evening with an excellent attendance and splendid interest.

Rev. F. J. Scott, pastor of the church, gave an interesting address on "A Man Leadeth." He spoke of "God requiring men to save men, and angels could not do it." He said: "Men are needed to compel men to come into the Kingdom in a special sense, God needeth one man mightier than any of us combined and he formed such a one in the Lord Jesus Christ, who is mighty to save."

Revival meetings will be continued for two weeks until February 14th, every week night with the exception of Saturday.

The Sunday services will take on a special evangelistic flavor.

MRS. JOHN BERRY IS HOSTESS

Entertained Guests at Luncheon Friday Afternoon at Her Home.

Mrs. John J. Berry entertained at luncheon at her residence 428 State street, on Friday afternoon. A most elaborate luncheon was served at 1.30 o'clock, the decorations being arranged very effectively. The centerpiece was formed of jonquills standing high from the table, and these were banked around by violets. The entire luncheon and the menu was carried out in the same fascinating color scheme, lavender and yellow. At the conclusion of the luncheon Mrs. Berry's guests from the navy yard and this city were present. Mrs. Berry's luncheon was voted to be one of the prettiest and most elaborate held thus far this season.

PEOPLES' OPINION

Talks on the City Charter.

Editor Herald:—

The proposed amendments to the city charter now in a bill before the legislature and which was printed in the local papers on Friday night, should be given careful consideration by the Portsmouth delegation and above all, a public meeting held in order that the people can have a voice in these proposed changes. While the bill has some good points, it also has a few bad ones. I believe that the sentiment of a public meeting will be to let the public works alone. The cry has always been, "Keep the public works out of politics." That is the reason the original bill creating the board put the election of the members in the hands of the people. Now somebody wants a little more politics injected into it and advocates taking away the rights of the people to elect whoever they want. If we have got to have a board of public works, let the people rule as to who shall be the members. Another bad feature contained in the bill is the legislating out of office the board of assessors of taxes. Why is this necessary? Why put in men that will be a year or more getting onto the business of the office in case the present assessors do not care to run again for office at city election. This board is all that can be desired when it comes to filling the important position of assessor and should not be disturbed by any pet scheme of politicians of either party. Let us have a public hearing on the bill and let those interested in it explain to the people why the present city charter is not good enough for Portsmouth. (Signed)

Let us have a public hearing on the bill and let those interested in it explain to the people why the present city charter is not good enough for Portsmouth. (Signed)
REPUBLICAN VOTER, Ward 2.

Why put in men that will be a year or more getting onto the business of the office in case the present assessors do not care to run again for office at city election. This board is all that can be desired when it comes to filling the important position of assessor and should not be disturbed by any pet scheme of politicians of either party. Let us have a public hearing on the bill and let those interested in it explain to the people why the present city charter is not good enough for Portsmouth. (Signed) bearing fifteen lighted candles and pinks and carnations added to the attractiveness of the table. The menu consisted of cocoa, ham sandwiches, assorted cake and cookies, oranges, candy and ice cream. Games and music were resumed until a late hour, when the guests left for home wishing their hosts many such happy birthdays.

THE NEW THEATRE

For Friday and Saturday

ROBERT EDESON in a five part production: "WHERE THE TRAIL DIVIDES", and is the answer to a difficult problem. "Little How" an Indian boy following the uprising of the Indians, is adopted by Colonel Lander and taken to Colonel Lander's home. Little Bessie Rowland, about the same age is also adopted by Col. Lander, Bessie's parents having been killed in the uprising.

Bessie and "How" grow up together and at the age of 15, "How" is sent to school and makes rapid headway in the white man's mode of civilization and education. Graduation time comes and Col. Lander and Bessie visit "How" and are met here by Craig, Col. Lander's nephew.

Mr. Edeson will be remembered as playing in this city in "The Call of the North" and "Strongheart". Both were staged at our local theatre.

ACT—George Baron—Comedian; very funny.

"Swedia and Her Dog"—Produced by the Essanay Company. One of the best of comedies, featuring Wallace Berry.

Monday and Tuesday, February 1 and 2; Marguerite Clark in "Wildflower". Four parts.

CARD OF THANKS

To our friends who helped by their sympathy to lighten our burden during the sickness and death of our dear little boy, we offer our heartfelt thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Browne.

Mr. and Mrs. Parent—

If the boy's overcoat won't "go through another winter" here's our proposition to you: Buy one now at our clearance price and let him wear it for "best" as the saying is, and then he will have one as good as new for next winter and at a big saving from what a coat will cost next season at the regular price. We've a splendid assortment for you to select from. Our boys' winter suits offer you the same money-saving opportunity.
